PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure.

If it's painful periods with women, same cause.

If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets

WOULD DEFY UNITED STATES.

Suggesting that the Spanish-American republics meet in congress to themselves to approve and proclaim the Drago doctrine, now that the powers have ignored it at The Hague, a correspondent of the official government newspaper El Constitucional, at Caracas, Venezuela, in a presumably inspired article, sounds the note for a "union against the common enemy; against the ambitions and egotism of the strongest."

The United States is directly alluded to in connection with the annexation of Texas and the independence of Panama when the writer says:

"We have seen English, German and American warships off the Venezuelan coast. In this way territory has been seized from Mexico and Colombia. Foreign interests are influential today in Ecuador and Central America, and perhaps tomorrow they will be in the whole continent if these nations do not wake up soon to the reality and unite for the defense of their interests."

To illustrate why the consent of the powers is not necessary to the establishing of the Drago doctrine, the writer cites the case of the Monroe doctrine, which, he says, has never even been discussed in any international conference of their interest.

Lamenting that on admitting the Spanish-American republics to the peace conference their interests and aspirations were not considered, and laying the blame for this on "the egoism of the great powers," the correspondent of El Constitutional says:

"The Drago doctrine can become a real and tangible fact. It will be sufficient if a Spanish-American congress be called in Buenos Ayres, Mexico or Caracas, and if all these nations assist and approve and proclaim this doctrine as the general law of these peoples in their relations with the foreign nations. It does not matter whether these latter approve it or not, because all the powers combined could not fight an entire continent. Why not attempt it? If the most influential presidents of these republics launch the letter of convocation this congress would result in a triumph."

Continuing, the writer says:

"Taking advantage of these circumstances, many foreign adventurers, at times in person and at times through incorporated companies, by obtaining leonine concessions from unscrupulous and unpatriotic governments, have exploited these countries miserably, and when the Spanish-American countries wish to stop this exploitation an international conflict arises. The adventurer shelters himself under the flag of his fatherland, and we then see how the great powers direct their warships and their cannon toward these republics, not to explate a national offense, but to protect the rapine of these adventurers."

LIFE SAVERS AT EXPOSITION.

The daily drills and exhibition which are being given by the United States life saving station at the Jamestown Exposition are attracting much attention. Every day the grand-stand overlooking Boush creek, an arm of Hampton Roads, where the exhibitions are given, is thronged with interested spectators watching the surfmen run their life boats into the sea, hasten out to a wrecked schooner lying on a bar, and by means of life buoys rescue the sailors from the rigging.

In these exhibitions the various styles of buoys, life cannon, life boats and rocket projectiles are shown. The first part of the drill consists of a life boat practice, in which self-righting boats and those with double bottoms and air compartments are used by the men.

Under the direction of Captain H. J. Cleary, one of the most skilled men in the service, the boats are run out of their house on carriages, launched and put through various manoeuvres. Of course all the surfmen are expert swimmers. A number of muskrats could not be more at home in the water, and their diving, utter fearlessness and strength in swimming have attracted wide-spread admiration.

Even to those wholly ignorant of the ways of the sea, a visit to the station is of the greatest interest. There one will see the different kinds of cannon used in shooting life lines over storm-tossed vessels; one will see the appliances now in use in this county and in the principal European countries; there are cases filled with projectiles which have been shot out to stricken ships, each shot bearing the date of its use, the locality of the wreck and the number of the people brought ashore on the line which followed it; and then one will see the men themselves, brown with the tan of the sun and wind and the salt spray, jolly with many a yarn to spin, but men who are prepared to brave the heaviest sea many having done so on numerous occasions, to carry aid to storm beaten and sinking ships.

WILL ESCAPE GUILLOTINE.

In spite of the fact that the use of the guillotine in France was suppressed two years ago by the refusal of parliament to continue the appropriation for a public executioner, a jury in Paris, yesterday, condemned to death a man named Soleillant for the murder of a little girl under atrocious circumstances. After subjecting the child to ill treatment, Soleillant plunged a knife into her heart and completed his horrible work by wrapping up the body in an old sack and carrying it to a nearby railroad station, where he checked it in the cloakroom. President Fallieres, in view of the fact that there is no public executioner, probably will have to commute the sentence to hard labor for life. When the death sentence was brought in Soleillant's wife shrieked at her husband: "Miserable wretch! You would have done better to kill yourself then to dishonor your wife and this child. Let me kill him!" She made an effort to reach the prisoner, but was prevented by court officers, who carried her fainting from the room. The woman was armed with a revolver. She declared during the hearing yesterday that if her husband was condemned, rather than see him die on the block she would shoot him and then herself.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 24 1907.

THE CONFERENCE of Maryland democratic leaders called by Senator Whyte met yesterday afternoon in Baltimore, adjourned after a session of more than three hours, and the party is no nearer now to knowing who will be its candidate for governor than it was before. A sensation was caused by Governor Warfield, who, in his speech, after declaring that he had "had his day," asserted that if some other men in the party who had for 30 or even more years been receiving party honors and wielding party power should recognize that they had had their day, too, the party would be better off. Emphatic replies to his remarks concerning the condition of the party were made by Mr. John P. Poe, Senator Isidor Rayner and Mr. Joshua W. Miles, each of whom declared that what the governor had said was unnecessarily depressing to the party people and not borne out by the facts. It is refreshing, however, to know that Gov. Warfield at last recognizes the fact that he has had his day—which he certainly has—but he foolishly labors under the impression that after himself comes the deluge. It is about time that he knows that the democratic party in Maryland can get along better without than it can with him. He did all he could to injure the party which made him governor when he vetoed the suffrage bill passed by the democratic legislature of Maryland.

USERS of anthracite coal all over the country will feel the results of increased taxation of coal lands in Pennsylvania. Assessed valuation has been doubled in Schuylkill county, while all other property of the county has been increased only four per cent. Coal lands formerly assessed at $21,000,000 have been raised to $42,000,000, but the remaining property in the county has only been raised from $28,000,000 to $29,000,000. The increased valuations epidemic throughout the anthracite region were not made to cover deficits in public funds, but with the purpose of transferring to coal land owners the greater share of tax burdens. Of course the coal miners can recoup by simply raising the price of coal, which undoubtedly they will do. The coal buyers will "pay the freight."

ALL the steamship lines are doing a record business in travel to Europe, the liners being sold out into August, and the total of passengers in the first half of this year being 43,102 more than during the first six months of last year. The greatest increase is in third class. Still, just as soon as Congress reassembles the ship owners will have their lobbyists at work in the endeavor to have their nefarious bills passed to pay them big subsidies at the expense of other people.

IT IS stated that lumber manufacturers of the two Carolinas meeting in Sumter, S. C., yesterday, agreed to shut down their mills in the two States for 60 days in August and September in an effort to boost prices. The lumber men say the market is demoralized. Great Scott. If at the present high prices at which lumber is selling there is a "demoralized" market, what will be the conditions when it is moralized by the dealers to suit themselves.

RETURNS of deaths from the plague in India show the appalling total of 1,060,067 for the six months ending June 30. The total for the first six months of 1907 already surpasses that for the entire twelve months of 1904, when 1,022,000 persons died. This is an awful condition of affairs and the people of this section of the world know comparatively nothing of the sufferings of their fellow men.

IT IS said that the Virginia officials who will try to bring about a settlement of the case between the State and United States Judge Pritchard over the two-cent railroad rate law will "do nothing indignified." Well, it is to be hoped not. It is about time that safe and sane methods were being resorted to by all parties concerned in this railroad matter.

From Washington.

[Correspondende of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, July 24.

The bitter judicial contest being waged in North Carolina between the State and federal authorities over the method of enforcing the State railroad rate law, will probably lead to an attempt to have Circuit Judge C. Pritchard impeached. An intimation has been received here that immediately upon the reassembling of Congress in December, formal charges will be presented against the judges who now stands accused by the North Carolina governor of trying to paralyze the courts of that State and prevent the performance of their proper functions. It is said that the complaint will be signed by the State officials and members of the judiciary, who will contend that the circuit judge's action is in open and gross violation of his powers, that he has attempted to override the wishes of the people, chain the legal machinery of North Carolina and hinder the executive power of the State in its inforcement of laws. Acting Assistant Attorney General Russell is watching the situation. He is in touch with Assistant Attorney General Sanford, but it is expected that the latter who is sent to the seat of trouble by the express order of the President, is reporting directly to Oyster Bay. It is pointed out here by constitutional lawyers, that if Judge Pritchard should be upheld in his contentions, there would be no use, and in a short time would be no call, for state courts. Through his suspension of a police court sentence by a writ of habeas corpus and the threatening of minor and high state authorities with a blanket order of contempt if they dared to execute the laws as laid down by the legislature, Circuit Judge Pritchard, has practically arrogated to himself all executive, legislative and judicial powers of the state. They say if his stand is just in the rate case, he would have power to act similarly in any other, or all cases with which he cared to meddle.

The action of the Navy Department just announced in installing submarine fog signals on ten warships, five of them of the largest class and on eleven colliers, following close upon the similar equipment of all light ships, easily puts the United States ahead in the adoption of this safety device. The lighthouse board is practically the parent of the invention. After Prof. Henry proved the impossibility of obtaining accurate fog signals through the air, the board furnished the facilities for the experiments in under-water signalling carried on during a number of years by Prof. Lucien I. Blake and A. B. Johnson, the chief of the board. Other investigators afterward came into the field and the system now adopted is the result of all these early efforts. The signalling apparatus consists of a bell of very high pitch, which is immersed in the water to a depth of about 25 feet, and is running by compressed air or electricity. The sound waves, after travelling through the water and through the sides of the ship, are picked up by microphones, similiar to telephone receivers and conveyed to the navigator in the pilot house. By comparison of the intensity of the sounds coming from port and starboard, the navigator locates the bell, and shapes his course accordingly. It is probable that had the steamship Columbia and the schooner San Pedro been equipped with this apparatus, the dreadful accident of Saturday night, with its terrible loss of life would not have occurred.

Willis J. Abbott, who is recognized as William Jennings Bryan's personal representative in Washington, told the United Press today that while he had no official authority to make any announcement on behalf of Mr. Bryan, he had every reason to believe that the Nebraskan would be a candidate for the democratic nomination for President in 1908. Word comes from the west that the formal announcement of Bryan's candidacy will be made by him personally at a great dinner to be held early in the fall at Lincoln, to which prominent democrats from all over the country will be invited. It is expected that on that occasion Bryan will outline the political policies for which he will stand.

As a result of the recent examinations for the consular service held at the State Department, 13 have been declared eligible for apointment, out of 38 who were examined. Among the 13 is Wm. H. Robertson, of Virginia. The average of the successful candidates is 34 1-2 years; all have more or less university education; 5 have had business experience, and 4 have had journalistic experience. As there is still a considerable number of vacancies in the consular service, another examination will be held at the Department of State on November 20, 21 and 22.

Following the example of United States Senators and Representatives, the Congressmen of Santo Domingo have raised their own salaries as well as that of the President of the republic and members of the cabinet. According to information sent to the State Department the President is to get $10,800 hereafter instead of $7,200, Substantial increases, amount not stated, have been given the secretaries of the several departments, members of congress, and government officialls generally. An era of prosperity is said to be prevailing on the island.

Joseph B. Bishop, Secretary of the Isthmian Canal Commission, and whom Senator Tillman dubbed the "government's $10,000 beauty," when he was receiving that salary for acting as press agent for the big ditch, has signified his intention of obeying the President's order transferring him to the isthmus. He will leave New York August 1.

The Haywood Trial.

Boise, July 24.—"We will have to leave the fate of this defendant with you eventually," said Clarence Darrow to the jury in opening his fight for Wm. D. Haywood, today.

"It is not Haywood alone whose fate is in the balance. It is the fate of a world-wide movement, and we ask and ask again that you consider carefully every bit of evidence before you make up your minds, For a year and a half this community has been poisoned by lies in newpapers which engendered hated and created sentiment against this defendant in an effort to hang him. This jury has been fed upon this sensational inaccuracy and naturally must be hostile; but we believe you will give this man fair treatment and weigh carefully all the evidence against him. Nowhere in the civilized world would any lawyer attempt to try a case were he not relying upon hostile sentiment. There might be some members of this jury who would hesitate to take this man's life on Orchard's perjured words, but who might have a lurking suspicion that he knew something about it and want to send him to the penitentiary. Don't do it. Wm. Haywood is not a coward. Don't be cowards. If Haywood is guilty, hang him, but if he is innocent release him. Don't, for God's sake, compromise. Be men and judge this case purely upon the evidence"

Darrow bitterly attacked Hawley, intimating that he believed the attorney for the State was insane and declared he lied at the time he said there was enough evidence in the case to hang Haywood, even with Orchard's testimony left out. He said Hawley lied when he said he was friendly to labor unions. Haywood's invalid wife sat in her pillowed chair intently watching the man who was attempting to restore to her a husband.

Relief from Bridge Crush.

New York, July 24.—In an effort to give some relief from the "bridge crush," lines of automobuses will be put in operation in September by the Manhattan Transit Company, according to an announcement today. One line will start from the Cortlandt street ferry, cross Brooklyn bridge and run to the Flatbush avenue station of the Long Island Railroad. Another line will run down Broadway from Fourteenth street to City Hall and cross the bridge to Brooklyn borough hall.

Acting under an order of the United States Court, the property of the Round Top Cement Company, located along the Potomac river, three miles west of Hancock, Md., yesterday was sold at public auction there by J. Fenton Thomas, trustee, of Baltimore. Six or seven of the heaviest bondholders purchased the property at a bid of $7,500, doing this in order to protect their own interest. The property represents an investment of about $40,000. The plant has not been in operation for about one year.

A sanitarium conducted on novel lines is about to be established in Washington. It provides for a hospital with all the most modern appliances for treating diseases of all kinds, which is to be used by the members of a society who pay small monthly dues and whose membership in the society entitles them to admission to the sanitarium and to medical treatment by a staff of physicians. The association is known as the National Benevolent Sanitarium. It has purchased the Chapin apartment house in the northwestern section of the city and the remodeling of the house for its new purposes as a sanitarium will be begun at once.

William J. Semonin was arrested in Louisville, Ky., yesterday afternoon, on a charge of embezzlement, it being alleged that he is short in his accounts as clerk of Jefferson county in a sum approximating from $45,000 to $50,000. Semonin furnished bond in the sum of $25,000. Semonin was one of the officials whose office was declared vacant by the Court of Appeals in deciding the election contest cases. He was elected as a democrat. Semonin stated that a full examination of the books would show that he did not owe the state over $22,000, the amount of his collections for June and July, which he had the legal right to withhold until he had been given his quietus, and which will be paid in full.

Both Houses of the New York legislature today passed the Senate reapportionment bill.

Mimic War.

Fort Wright, Fishers Island, N. Y., July 24.—Some important problems are being solved in the mimic war being conducted at the forts at the entrance of the sound by the regulars and the Connecticut militiamen. One of the most important is whether it would be possible for war vessels to get by the forts and into the sound, thus opening a way to New York harbor. The operations so far indicate that the sound would not be impregnable to an enemy by reason of the present fortifications. Much surprise was occasioned today when it was announced by the judges of Monday's attack on Fort Mansfield that the guns in the fortifications there were put out of business theoretically by the attacking vessels. The operations thus far, it is believed, have demonstrated that it will be possibe for a fleet to get around Fort Mansfield without great damage. The report of the maneuvers will therefore have an important bearing in future arrangements for guarding the sound from an enemy.

Japanese and American Officers Fraternizing.

Brest, France, July 24.—Japanese and American naval officers are mingling with the greatest cordiality here today, but the American "tars" are all kept aboard their ships as a precaution against clashes with the Japanese. Shortly after the Japanese vessels arrived Rear Admiral Stockton called upon Admiral Juin, the Japanese commander, and this visit was shortly returned. In the afternoon officers from both squadrons met a garden party given at the Maritime square.

Salutes were exchanged between the fleet as the Japanese warships steamed into the harbor. The French forts saluted first and then the Japanese. Gun for gun the Japanese responded.

Killed in His Home.

Amsterdam, N. Y., July 24.—Wm. McLachlan, aged 62 years, for many years a justice of the peace of the town of Amsterdam, and who had forfeited friends because of his eccentrictties was found murdered last night in his home near this city, where he lived alone, although rich.

His body bore eight stab wounds and he had evidently been dead for four or five hours when discovered by a neighbor.

The motive of the crime baffles the authorities, although the discovery in the house of a large quantity of blankets and gloves leads them to the belief that the murder have been committed by burglars.

Attempt to Blow Up Saloon.

New York, July 24.—An attempt was made at 2 o'clock this morning to blow up the saloon and dwelling at 89 Grove street, Flushing, L. I. The front part of the building was wrecked. A can of powder and two sticks of dynamite was found near the building.

Mr. Thomas F. Ryan and his associates in the world of finance have on foot a plan to make the Seaboard Air Line the greatest coal carrying road in the country, by opening up an enormous coal field in Virginia and connecting it with the Seaboard Air Lines by means of a 200-mile railway line, now being built and known as the South and Western Railway.

THE TWO-CENT RATE.

A dispatch from Asheville, N. C., says: The Southern Railway is preparing an ancillary, or supplemental bill, in its injunction case, praying for an enlargement and broadening of the scope of their enjoinment, by which they expect to make it operative directly upon all prosecuting officers of the State if not directly upon the State courts.

This injunction will prevent all persons from complaining, before magistrates or grand juries or other officers of the State charged with administration of criminal laws, or any violation of the rate statute, and any who shall dare question the force of this injunction will be haled before the federal judge charged with contempt.

This bill will enjoin every solicitor of the State personally, but it is contended that solicitors are not necessary in the prosecution of the Southern Railway for violations of the law or in other cases that the grand jury prosecutes.

Gov. Glenn has been guilty of contempt, according to the Southern Railway Company.

Assistant United States Attorney Sanford held a conference in Asheville, last night with President Finley, of the Southern; General Counsel A. P. Thom, General Counsel Alexander P. Humphrey, and special counsel for the State, and presented to them a proposition looking to a settlement of the points at issue. After much argument the railway men were induced to agree to the plan. The proposal was wired to Gov. Glenn, who said he would reply later.

Information from Raleigh is to the effect that Gov. Glenn will not recede from the position that the United States court cannot prevent the enforcement of the law by the State courts, and that he will resist to the utmost, by any force necessary, any attempt of the United States court to enjoin the State courts from doing their duty under the law.

NEGRO KILLED.

The escape of Edward Davis and Roy Seals, two negroes who were confined at the State farm, near Richmond, Saturday morning, was attended with unusual incidents. The men asked to be released from their cells, and when the door was opened Davis made a lunge at one of the guards. The negroes took the officer's gun, and when Guard Ammons came to the assistance of the other guard he in turn was attacked by Seals.

Both guards were badly beaten and bitten by the negroes, who immediately got out of the building and made a break for freedom. They had been gone but a few minutes when bloodhounds and several officers started on the trail. The men made for Louisa county, holding up several people on the route and demanding food at the point of their guns. The officers followed closely, coming up to the men near Pendleton Monday night. Goodman, one of the officers, called on the men to halt, Ammons covering one and Goodman the other. The men broke for the woods, taking the guns which they had taken from the guards at the farm with them.

The two officers fired, but they did not follow up the men, fearing an attack from ambush. Yesterday morning they went through the woods and found the dead body of Davis. Seals is still at large, with officers in pursuit. He is regarded as a desperado and will be shot on sight.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Striking Miners.

Duluth, Minn., July 24.—Deportations, industrial parades, disruption of business on the iron ranges, Governor Johnson on the ground saying he can have troops in the field within 8 hours, and a growing breach between the iron miners and owners, mark the labor situation in this district today. At Hibbing, Minn., a citizens' mass-meeting last night denounced the strike and adopted resolutions to arrest any man offering intimidation to workers. The meeting refused to hear a delegation of strikers.

Two agitators were arrested at Bovey Inn., as they reached the town and thrown in jail at Grand Rapids.

Armed citizens are looking for more agitators. None will be permitted to set foot in Bovey.

Eight mines at Virginia, not before implicated, have been closed by a parade of 3,000 strikers and 2,000 men are thrown out of work.

The strikers number about 4,000. There are about 5,000 miners in the district.

Policemen Charged with Cowardice.

New York, July 24.—Failure of the police to capture Frank Werner yesterday after chasing him into the Spalding building following the murder of Esther C. Norling, will probably result in several officers being charged with cowardice. Had any effort been made to apprehend Warner he could never have made his second attack on John C. Wilson, but he eluded scores of policemen and, slipping out a back way, reached Wilson's office. Warner is dying at Bellevue, and there is little likelihood he will ever regain consciousness after his rough handling by Jacob Rohe, the truckman who captured him.

The Magill Case.

Clinton, July 24.—News that States Attorney Miller has arranged for the calling of a special grand jury, convinces many that he does not consider the case against Fred Magill and his wife arrested on their honeymoon charged with the murder of Magill's first wife, very strong. Under present arrangements there will probably be no public or preliminary hearing, and if the special jury finds evidence sufficient, the Magills will be held to the October grand jury. Search for Margaret Magill continues, but without results. It is believed that she is in keeping of lawyers for the defense and will be produced when needed.

Rich Armenians Scared.

New York, July 24.—With strong forces of armed guards surrounding their homes and places of business and attending them every time they even set foot out of doors, the rich Armenian residents are in momentary fear of the fate which befell their countryman Monday.

An indictment charging murder in the first degree was returned against Hampartzoomian, the slayer of Tavashanjian, this afternoon. Following the indictment Aleon, head of a firm dealing in Turkish rugs made public a letter demanding $10,000 for the Hunkystain society.

Turf War Expected.

New York, July 24.—That there will be a turf war here is now certain since the Empire City track, near Yonkers, which will open simultaneously with Saratoga has engaged Matt J. Winn as manager of the meeting. The engagement of Winn means that the Western Jockey Club and the American Turf Association have decided to take up the charges of James Butler in his fight for recognition. Just what will be the move of the Jockey Club is a matter of much interest among turfmen.

Will Fight Injunction.

Detroit, Mich., July 24.—Mayor Thompson says today that the city will fight to raise the injunction preventing Detroit from passing a three cent street railway fare ordinance. The ordinance aims to fix the rate of fare at three cents on lines over which the company's franchises have or are about to expire. The injunction was secured by the Guaranty Trust Company, of New York, holder of $22,000,000, worth of Detroit United Bonds from the United States district court.

Head on Collision.

Greenville, Pa., July 24.—One man was killed, five persons badly injured and a dozen slightly hurt here in a head-on collision on the Bessemer and Lake Erie Railroad between a special passenger train carring 200 people on their way to Conneticut Lake on a moonlight excursion and a light engine running in the opposite direction. The wreck was due to a misunderstanding of orders, and that great loss of life did not result is almost miraculous.

Death of Song Writer.

Louisville, Ky., July 24.—Col. Wills. Hays, song writer and poet, died at his home here from an attack of vertigo, caused by a stroke of paralysis suffered in the Iroquois Theatre fire in Chicago. He was 70 years old. He was the original author of the words to "Dixie" and claimed to have arranged the music. He wrote many songs, one of them "Molly Darling," reaching a sale of 2,000,000 copies in Europe and America.

Killed by His Brother.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 24.—F. C. Culp, 30 years old, a machinist for the Westinghouse Company, East Pittsburg, was shot at his home on Turtle Creek, last midnight by his younger brother, William H., dying fifteen minutes later. His brother was arrested. Culp is said to have been abusing his wife when his younger brother, who boards at the house, interferred.

Suicide in Central Park.

New York, July 24.—Two pennies found in his pockets are believed by the police to indicate the motive for the suicide of Captain Alfred Reingold Ernst, formerly an officer in the regiment of Prince Frederich, of the Netherlands, who killed himself today in Central Park.

Races Postponed.

Detroit, July 24.—Today's grand circuit races have been declared off on account of rain. The $10,000 M. and M. stake for green trotters was scheduled for today.

Signed Davis Bill.

Albany, N. Y., July 24.—Governor Hughes today signed the Davis bill which permits life insurance companies to issue other than the standard forms of life insurance policies if the same approved by the superintendent of insurance. The Governor also approved the Stratton bill which makes more stringent the sanitary requirements governing milk.

Tumbled Into Treasure.

Fairfield, N. J., July 24.—"All's well that ends well," exclaimed Frank J. Morehead, when he returned yesterday in a most dilapidated condition to his home. For Morehead carried a potato sack half full of valuables, into which he had fallen, literally; silverware, watches and jewelry worth anywhere between $2,000 and $3,000, not to mention $30 in cash.

The finding of the treasure, buried by burglars probably, was the lucky climax of a series of mishaps. Morehead had been fishing in a canoe and finally found himself high and dry on the bank two miles from home. All that was left was to walk back to Fairfield. Morehead arrived at the former site of a little house which was burned in 1903. Only its crumbling foundation walls remain, and weeds and vines. As Morehead was picking his way past part of the foundation wall gave way and he fell head-first in the tangle of briers. Sore and bleeding he was trying to scramble from the hole when he saw the jewelry and silverware at his feet.

The house in whose cellar the valuables were buried was last occupied by two men in 1902. During their occupancy of it several burglaries were committed at Pompton Plains, Lincoln Park and Mountain View, all within a few miles of it.

Threatening Letters.

Boston, July 24.—The Armenian terrorists have extended the scope of their operations to Boston. The police here are today co-operating with the New York force in running down the gang. A postal card threatening M. H. Gulesian, a wealthy Armenian of Boston, with death, has been received. It is as follows:

My brother, we today killed H. S. Tavashanjian and next we will kill you. You are a millionaire and give nothing to our party. Believe me, you die.

COMMITTEE OF REVOLUTION.

Mr. Gulesian, it was learned today, is not the only prominent Armenian who has been branded by the revolutionists. D. M. Arshage, an editor and publisher, has lately been threatened with murder because he left the society.

Fresh Whack at Oil Trust.

Tupelo, Miss., July 24.—George B. Mitchell, prosecuting attorney for the First Judicial district, filed suit for $1,480,000 in the Lee county Circuit Court yesterday against the Standard Oil Company, charging violation of the Mississippi anti-trust law. If the suit is successful, the Standard Oil Company will not only be forced to pay the sum named, but will be obliged to change the company's organization or leave Mississippi. The petition alleges that the Standard Oil Company has violated the law by owning stock of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, of Missouri, and also stock of the Union Tank Line. The suit is for $5,000 penalty for each day the company has done business in Mississippi since the anti-trust law went into effect.

Didn't Forget the Steak.

Moorestown, N. J., July 24.—"Please take out what I owe you for the steak I bought seven years ago," said a fashionably-dressed man to C. N. Mortland, a local butcher, yesterday as he threw down a bank note on the counter. The man was unknown to the butcher, but upon inquiry it developed that he was formerly a tramp who had picked berries in this neighborhood seven years ago for Arthur J. Collins, and after buying the meat left the town.

Two years later the man settled down in life and is now a stock broker. He gave his name and office address, and said he had often thought of that steak for which he owed.

Alleged Assailants at Large.

Whitman, Mass., July 24.—Unable to find the least trace of the man or men supposed to have bound and gagged pretty 15 year-old Violet James yesterday and then carried her to the attic of her home, the police today take refuge in the theory that the whole affair is a hoax perpetrated by the girl herself or her parents. Believing that her daughter is the victim of an atrocious assault, Mrs. Joseph T. J. James is loud in her denunciation of the police for failing to run down the assailants. She bitterly denies the rumor that she herself tied the girl and left her in the attic as punishment for staying out late at night.

Panic Stricken Girls.

New York, July 24.—Two hundred girls employed in a Broadway building were thrown into a panic today by a fire in an adjoining building and in a rush for the street from the upper floors several were badly bruised. No serious injuries resulted, however. The fire was in a six story building at 369 Broadway, occupied by Weber and Heilbroner, haberdashers, and other concerns. Defective wiring caused the blaze. The loss is about $25,000.

Betrothal Announced.

Memphis, Tenn., July 24.—The betrothal is announced of Miss Katrinia Wright, daughter of General L. E. Wright, former governor of the Philippines and retiring ambassador to Japan, to Charles Palmer, vice president of the International Bank, of Manila. The marriage will take place at the American Embassy in Tokio. The bride and groom will sail August 27 for the United States, accompanied by General and Mrs. Wright.

Hotel Destroyed.

New York, July 24.—The Croacheron House at Bayside, L. I., which was the hiding place of Wm. M. Tweed for two weeks before he fled to Cuba to escape punishment for robbing the city years ago, was burned to the ground today. Incidentally the fire gave James J. Corbett, former heavy weight champion the chance to display himself as a life-saver.

Young Woman Charged with Murder.

Michigan City, Ind., July 24.—Florence Gray, a beautiful 20-year-old girl, is in the custody of the police charged with the murder of her sweetheart, Frank Brown. She shot him, the police, say, and then attempted suicide. She will recover.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 24.—Discounting and expected increase in the Southern Pacific dividend rate was the incentive to most of the trading on the stock exchange all through the forenoon and buying by houses affiliated with the management practically absorbed all the floating supply on the upward movement made in the first hour. The strength of the two Harriman stocks were reflected in a firmer tone.

THE RATE BILL.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., July 24.—It is rumored in official circles that at the Virginia rate hearing before Judge Pritchard, at Asheville, Attorney General Anderson and A. C. Braxton, who is associated with the Attorney General in the rate fight agreed that Virginia, would abide by the decision of the federal judge.

In this connection it is further suggested that the State is now embarrassed in consequence of these assurances made by the State's representatives and that this is an explanation of the uncertain mysterious attitude assumed by those who participated in Monday's conference.

Attorney General Anderson today denied that such sweeping assurances were given the federal judge, though he admitted that Mr. Braxton in the preparation of his argument declared that the State would accept with good grace his honor's decision and would indulge in no unseemly criticism of the action or motives of the court.

Attempt to Blow Up Bank.

New, York, July 24.—Because he refused to pay tribute to the Black Hand an attempt was made today to blow up the bank of Gustave Bonacasa, a prosperous Italian of Flushing. A can of powder was exploded under a doorway shattering the windows and blowing out the front of the building, but two sticks of dynamite failed to explode. They would have completely destroyed the large building causing heavy loss of life. Bonacasa told the officer he had received a black hand letter a few days ago threatening to blow up his bank unless he paid $2,000. He paid no attention to the letter thinking it a joke.

The President's Callers.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 24.—President Roosevelt is holding a conference today with Chairman Wm. R. Willcox, of the New York Public Utilities Commission. The vacancy in the postoffice of the metropolis is the chief topic under discussion. Mr. Willcox came to urge Edward M. Morgan's claims for the place. Mr. Willcox will stay to luncheon at Sagamore Hill. Other guests will be Lucius B. Swift, of Indianapolis, and Langdon Warner, of Boston.

Asheville, N. C., July 24.—"The laws of the State of North Carolina will be enforced and the prosecution of the charges against the Southern Railway Company will be continued with all the means I have at hand," is the declaration of Gov. Glenn, "and the law will remain in force and effect until declared invalid by a competent tribunal."

Wilmington, Del., July 24.—Because he failed to cure himself of the habit of stuttering, Marden Ryan, aged 22 first mate on the three-masted schooner Della committed suicide early this morning on board his vessel about four miles below the quarantine station at Reedy Island in the Delaware. He shot himself with a revolver.

Defense Averse to Judge Robbins.

Frankfort, Ky., July 24.—It became known here today that when the Caleb Powers case is called for trial in Georgetown, next Monday, the defense will endeavor to get Judge Robbins off the bench. Judge Robbins tried Powers three years ago when the death verdict was returned.

LINEMAN ABLAZE ON POLE.

It required a block and tackle to release William Hicks, a lineman, from a live wire at the Lareine Hotel, Bradley Beach, N. J., yesterday. Hicks placed his hand on the wire at the top of a 35-foot ladder. In an instant he was writhing in the air, and his clothes dropped off while the spectators sickened with horror. When Hicks was finally released Dr. Hathaway, a guest at the hotel, discovered that his heart was still beating, and it is now believed he will recover.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Flord, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of James Bontz, who was drowned while swimming in the Delaware river, near Salem, N. J., Sunday afternoon, took place this afternoon at the residence of his father, Mr. George W. Bontz, 422 north Alfred street. The services were conducted by Rev. William J. Morton, rector of Christ Church, and the interment was made in Union Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Allen T. Smith, Talbot McCuen and Garrett Pitts, of Alexandria, and Messrs. Fred W. Lewis, Harry E. Kalmbacher and Horace H. McCall, of Wilmington, Del. The floral tributes were profuse and handsome, among them being one from the Rosebud Social, of Wilmington, of which the deceased was president. It was in charge of Miss Sadie A. McKay, vice president of the association, who attended the funeral. In the centre of the piece were the words, "Our President." Twelve mechanics from the Pennsylvania shops also attended the funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Sallie Foote Washington took place this morning from her home, 314 south Patrick street. Rev. Father Kelley conducted the services, and the pallbearers were Harvey Williams, Dr. Washington, Thomas W. Robinson and George Washington.

FAIRFAX NOTES.

The village camp meeting conducted by Rev. F. A. Strother, pastor, in Fairfax circuit, was a signal success, forty persons professed religion and joined the church. An acre of ground was donated by Mr. W. W. Smith of that place for a church site and a liberal subscription was made toward building a Southern Methodist Church there which will begin in the near future.

Rev. F. A. Strother is conducting at present a village camp meeting at Pinder, Fairfax county. Congregations are very large and interest intensely manifested. Up to the present, there have been eight additions to the church. The meetings will continue through the week, at least. The new Southern Methodist Church being erected there is a beautiful Gothic structure and will be completed within the next few weeks.

ACCIDENT TO A TRAIN.

The Seaboard Air Line train was derailed as it approached the north end of the bridge over the Rappahannock river at Fredericksburg about half-past ten o'clock yesterday morning. The engine (No. 74) turned over and one mail car was thrown off the track. As the train neared the bridge the engineer found the block closed. He applied the brakes, but they did not work promptly and the train went through the block and the engine was purposely derailed, narrowly avoiding a collision with a freight train on the bridge. Richard O'Brien, the engineer, one of the oldest in the service of the road, was pinned under the cab of the engine and was seriously injured. His foot was crushed, his head cut, and his body painfully burned. John Hargrove, the fireman, was slightly injured. The track was blocked for several hours.

"ENEMY" REPULSED.

There was more mimic war in this vicinity last night. Several vessels which were trying to steal past Fort Hunt and get to Alexandria and Washington were "sunk" Monday night. Detachments from Companies I, K, L and M, 2nd Regiment, D. of C. National Guard, last night made a landing on the south side of Fort Hunt. The garrison fought heroically and at the end of the "battle" it was declared that the landing party probably had been defeated, and that, theoretically, a large number was killed. The squadron, consisting, theoretically, of several battleships and six cruisers, anchored off Marshall Hall early in the evening. The fleet was manned by 100 or more militiamen, with Lieut. Col. O'Brien in command.

ECLIPSE OF THE MOON.

From about 10 o'clock tonight until shortly after midnight the sun, earth and moon will almost be in a line, and the moon will be partially eclipsed. The eclipse will be the second eclipse of the moon this year, the first having occurred January 28-29, being partly visible in this city. The moon will enter the dark shadow of the earth caused by the sun at 9:56 p. m., at which moment the actual eclipse begins. The satellite will gradually pass into the shadow thrown by the earth, although it will at no time be entirely eclipsed, and 11:22 p. m. will be the moment of greatest eclipse. At 12:27 p. m. the moon will pass out of the shadow, and the eclipse, which will be visible in Alexandria, will be over.

DUKE-INMAM WEDDING.

James B. Duke, head of the American Tobacco Company, and Mrs. Nanaline Holt Inman, widow of William Inman, who died three years ago in Atlanta, Ga., were married yesterday in Brooklyn. James B Duke only recently brought suit for divorce against his first wife, Lillian McCreedy, in the New Jersey courts, and the divorce was granted by Vice Chancellor Pitney on June 18, after a sensational trial, in which Major Frank T. Huntoon was named as corespondent by Duke.

Mrs. Duke is the widow of William Inman, a member of the famous cotton family of that name. She was formerly Nanaline Holt and was born in Macon, Ga. The fact that Mr. Duke contemplated marrying again first became known when he purchased the Henry H. Cook property, at Fifth avenue and Seventy-eighth street, New York, for $1,600,000. Adjoining the Cook home on either side are the homes of H. H. Rogers and Harry Payne Whitney.

Wise Counsel from the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. K. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at E. SEE PICTURE OF CHRIST.

There is intense religious excitement among thousands of people in the Acatian district, State of Pueblo, Mexico, over what is termed a miracle that was performed in an old Catholic church situated upon the summit of the Cerro del Calvario.

It is claimed that last Saturday a painting of the face of Christ miraculously appeared upon the back of a painting of St. Anthony. It is claimed by artists who have inspected the painting that it was not done by human hands. Thousands of people are flocking to the church each day to view the picture. The Bishop of Hushuapam is on his way to the place to view the painting and to give his official approval of it being the product of a miracle.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

The ills peculiar to women, take different forms.

Some ladies suffer, every month, from dark rings round their eyes, blotches on their skin and tired feeling. Others suffer agonies of pain, that words can hardly express.

Whatever the symptoms, remember there is one medicine that will go beyond mere symptoms, and act on the cause of their troubles, the weakened womanly organs.
